

Sherali Mukimov “The role of international financial security in ensuring the stability of world finance system”

Supervisor: U. Burkhanov

Main aim of the research. Producing more effective and transparent security mechanisms for both global and national financial systems through learning the importance, theoretical and practical features.

Tasks of the research.

1. Studying the formation history of the security in the financial sector and explaining basic rules which has been affecting its development;
2. Analyzing current condition of world finance security and related problems;
3. Investigating some fails in financial security activities, making necessary conclusions by learning them;
4. Producing essential suggestions and explanations from the point of view of ensuring the stability of global financial system;
5. Finding establishment methods of the research results into the financial and economic security system of the republic of Uzbekistan.